Partnerships

Last call for partners! We're on the home stretch, but the Partnership Desk is still hard at work. Drop by and they'll do their very best to pair you up for the final few events. Thanks for the great job, Page and crew!

Today's Lunch Special

The Sheraton Crescent is offering a daily lunch special in the Indigo Restaurant for just $9.95 including beverage. Today's special is a Mini Quesadilla with a cup of tortilla soup. Ole!

One Last Time! Room 628

Tonight will be the 'clean out the fridge' menu, says JoAnne Lowe, our hard-working and very hospitable Chair along with assistants Alice Pierce and Harriett Motley. Answering the phone with "Jo's Bar and Grill," we know she's got a potluck of surprises 'on tap' for her final night of hospitality. Stop by and thank them for a job mighty 'well done.'

Tournament Results

Results, total masterpoints and the Daily Bulletin are posted on our website at www.unit354.com. Thank you Webmistress Lesley for keeping them up-to-date so well!

Regional Table Talk

She Gets Around

Wheelchair-bound Pat Lutes of Sun City West is not one to get down about her condition.

“This is all too much fun being here and playing bridge to start feeling sorry for yourself,” says spunky Pat who is eager to help out next year as a volunteer in tournament activities.

In fact, Pat has already thrown her hat into the ring to run for the 2010 board this December. “I’d love to do the Partnership Desk because I really enjoy working with people,” says Pat who suffers from an arthritis condition and has been motoring around for seven years.

In dealing with partnerships, she can learn from the master, Page Tomkinson, whose board term ends at year-end. Go for it Pat!

Bridge Has Gone To The Dogs

Doggon’ it. What’s the ‘deal’ with all the dogs at the Desert Empire Regional this year?

This week we counted nearly half a dozen rovers rooming and roaming at the Sheraton Crescent and the rumor is that some of them play even better cards than their masters!

You’ve all seen the black cocker spaniel, Daisy, hanging around the Partnership Desk. She belongs to Page Tomkinson, Partnership Chair. Page says that in a real pinch, “she wouldn’t be averse to using Daisy as a fill-in partner. Has to be someone really desperate, though!”

“We always bring our two Cavalier King Charles spaniels, 11-year old Diana Pooches and 15-month old Lola wherever we go, and they’re doing just fine in the room,” said Robb Gordon of Sedona.

Robb notes that the Starwood hotel chain (of which the Sheraton Crescent is a member) “are just great about letting you have dogs in the room,” adding that hat he and his wife are not planning to take the dogs to the upcoming Nationals in San Diego, “so

New Life Masters

Congratulations to our newest Life Masters:

- ♣ Bob Borengassen, Tempe Ariz
- ♣ JoAnne Biermann, Sun City West Ariz.
- ♣ Susan Belding, Houston Tex.

Due to space limitations, photos will be printed in Sunday’s Daily Bulletin.

Page Tomkinson (lt) of Scottsdale with Daisy and Michaela Olesen (rt), also of Scottsdale, with Lilly

we’ll have to leave them home.”

And Michaela Olesen says her seven-year old poodle is also enjoying the Sheraton surroundings. “It’s cheaper than leaving her at the kennel,” she adds. “I think in San Diego they will charge us an extra $30 per day for having a dog,” said Michaela as her partner, Ron Peyton, stood by in the ballroom holding on to Lilly tethered to a leash.

“And let me tell you Lilly knows sure how to play the hands,” jokes Ron.

And then there are Larry and Stephanie Haddy of Fountain Hills. “We found our little puppy wandering up in the mountains in Strawberry and so now Haley is in the room with us,” said Larry.

“You going to write us up in the Bulletin?” asks Larry. We try not to be too ‘bitchy’ but the Bulletin staff can’t help it. News is news.

Friday's Fish Bowl And Door Prize Winners

Nancy Goulet, of Scottsdale, hit the jackpot with her exact Fish Bowl guess of 490.

The lucky door prize winners were Dorothy Hanko of Sun Lakes, Carol Johns of Scottsdale, and Michael Ryan of Phoenix. Fuddruckers, Chilis, and Red Lobster donated the dining certificates for yesterday's drawings.

Thanks to Board member, Susan Sneed, for contacting all the local restaurants and rounding up so many dining certificates.
